

Cartoonists

- Emile Mercier

Claude Lepastrie

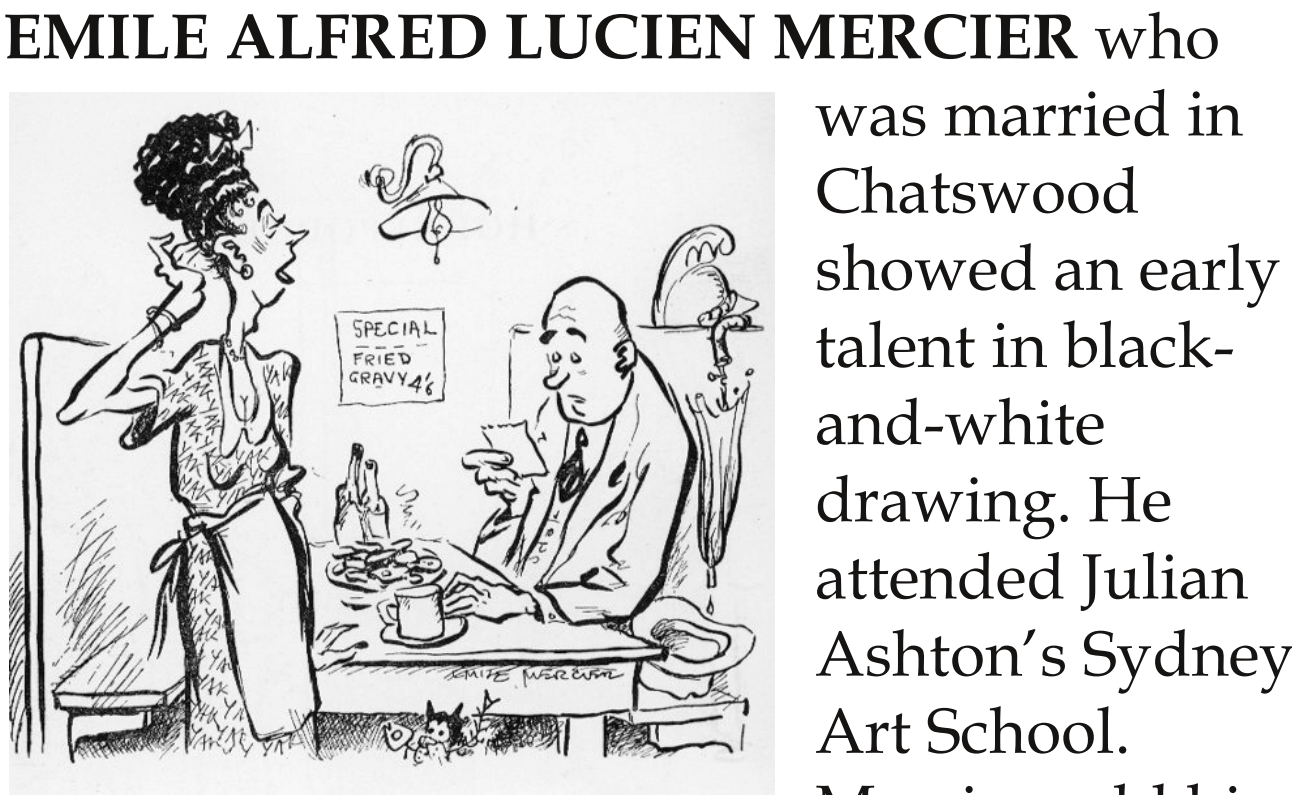

William Constable

Bernard Hesling

LePastrie's lightning sketch

'lightening sketch' artist. One of his works hangs in the Willoughby City Library.

Restuarant Bill by Mercier

Taking the mick

Melbourne Punch, the Melbourne Herald, the Sydney Sportsman and the ABC Weekly. He also made money with humorous cartoons for advertising campaigns. His 1927 brochure for Advanx Tyres included the caption 'invite us to your flat'.

BERNARD HESLING became friendly with the new residents in the 'bush suburb' of Castlecrag. In his spare time, Hesling drew daily cartoons for the Daily Telegraph. Hesling went to work full time at the Telegraph and his naive outline-style cartoons became well known.

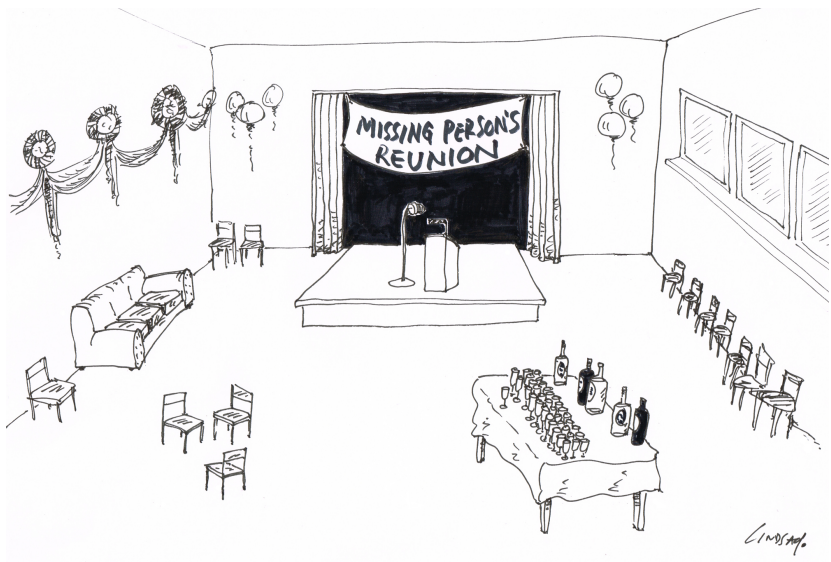

WILLIAM HENRY ARCHIBALD CONSTABLE was a leading Australian film and stage designer, painter, cartoonist, printmaker and illustrator.

Sci Fi Stage Design by Constable

Cartoonists are adept at extracting the absurd

Mssing Persons Reunion