A PATCH OF SUN draws together poetry by established, emerging and local poets who were invited to read their work at the regular Poetry Nights currently held at Rubino's restaurant in Willoughby. These nights - convened under the aegis of the North Shore Poetry Project were part of the Australian Poetry's Cafe Poets Program at Kalay's Kitchen.

Co-editor of A Patch of Sun, PHILIP PORTER is an ex-showman, prison guard, fisherman, freelance journalist, businessman, high school and University teacher. As a follow-up to his stint as "poet in residence" under the aegis of Australian Poetry Philip organises the North Shore Poetry Project at Rubino's, a Sydney cafe, featuring established and up and coming poets.

A Patch of Sun is edited by Philip Porter, Luke Fischer and Kit Kelen.
