

Potters

George Day jnr.
Kenneth Day
Jack Ronson
Derek Smith
Etta Easton

GEORGE DAY JNR. was an expert moulder, mould maker and modeller. Perhaps his best known work is Koala & Possum, a jardinière made in four pieces.

George Day Jardiniere
Mashman Brothers

JACK RONSON designed and made 'specials' at the Mashman pottery such as the Sydney Harbour Bridge, plaques and models of heads for Akubra hats.

Jack Ronson piece
WDHS&M

DOULTON AUSTRALIA

Accomplished potter KENNETH DAY designed and made the moulds for Doulton for the Grecian Key oven to tableware range.

Grecian Key Tableware
by Ken Day
WDHS&M

DEREK SMITH trained as a ceramic designer. He was invited to establish a pottery studio at the Doulton Factory in Chatswood.

Derek Smith piece
The Vintage Potter

EASTON POTTERY

HENRIETTA EASTON established a pottery in Willoughby. She soon developed a trademark look for Easton's pottery: foliage-carved ware usually in cream and burgundy.

Easton pottery jug
Pinterest

